

Circuit Breaker Installation, Testing and Overhaul

PBA staff have an established reputation for working to a high standard while providing a professional and efficient service. Our circuit breaker experts respond promptly to requests for service, whether they be planned or emergency and can find solutions to the most challenging problems.

The following attributes provide the foundation of PBA's circuit breaker capabilities:

- Several factory trained experts
- Experienced SF6 handlers
- ISO 14001 and 9001 business system certifications
- A full suite of Circuit Breaker and SF6 test equipment compliant with national industry standards
- Experience with the complete range of circuit breaker technologies throughout New Zealand

PBA offers the following areas of expertise with regards to Circuit Breaker work:

- CB assembly and installation
- Commissioning tests
- On site fault finding
- SF6 handling and testing
- CB condition assessment
- CB asset management plans
- Refurbishment and overhaul in a clean workshop
- Project Management and supervision

